T62—FORTUNE SERIES
 2 1/4 by 3 1/4 inches • 67mm by 83mm
 Series of 505 cards • Card value: $2.50

This series consists of 101 large, colorful scenes, each with five different fortunes. The pictures cover a wide variety of topics, and there are no titles. The cards are grouped in the checklist in two general categories: with male figures predominating (pictures 1-65), then with male and female figures in the scene (67-101). Within the major categories, similar type scenes have been grouped together. One scene—the lighthouse (picture 66)—has no figures visible. Groupings are arbitrary and follow historical precedent, so there are some exceptions to the ordering. Descriptions of the main scene for each card are shown in italics above the five fortunes found with that scene. Based on company records, the series was distributed from two factories between spring and the end of the year in 1910.

Fronts: The fronts show a color picture of various scenes, some with interior framing or designs. The fortune appears in blue ink inside the picture area, and a thin gold frame line surrounds the picture and is itself surrounded by a 1/4-inch light blue border with a flower pattern. "Turkish Trophies" is printed in dark blue at the bottom center in the border area.

Backs: "Turkish Trophies Turkish Cigarettes" and "Fortune Series" are followed by "S. Anargyros [in script] a Corporation" then the factory line. A curved line border with flower designs encloses the printing.

COMPANY: S. ANARGYROS CORP. (a subsidiary of the American Tobacco Co.)
 BRAND: TURKISH TROPHIES CIGARETTES • FACTORY NO. 7, 3RD DIST. STATE N.Y.;
 FACTORY NO. 30, 2ND DIST. STATE N.Y. • WTI REF#: A54-46

T63—GENERALS

2 1/4 by 3 1/4 inches • 54mm by 87mm

2 by 3 1/4 inches • 51mm by 79mm

Series of 25 cards • Card value: $12

This series depicts not only generals but also naval leaders and members of President McKinley's administration during the Spanish-American War. It includes such heroes as Admiral Dewey of the Battle of Manila fame; Admiral Schley, the victor in the Battle of Santiago Harbor; and, of course, Colonel Teddy Roosevelt, famous for his Rough Riders and their exploits at San Juan Hill. As with the other three T-series produced by L. Miller and Sons, there are two sizes of cards. The first size has a border surrounding the picture, while the smaller size is borderless. The size difference was probably due to different package sizes for the Leroy Little Cigars. Based on the subject, the series was probably issued sometime between 1898 and 1901, before McKinley's assassination. The series title is sometimes seen as Generals and Admirals (Spanish War). The backs are blank.

Fronts: A small black-and-white head-and-shoulders portrait of the military leader is set inside a gold frame within a larger, detailed color picture of the leader in some type of action or battle scene—all surrounded by a 1/16- to 1/8-inch ornate gold border frame. Each larger-sized card has an additional border. The name of the subject is at the bottom within the picture, accompanied by "Le Roy Little Cigars."
